

Code : 3036

Paï Mu Tan "Pivoine Blanche"- Loose tea (0.250)

80°C

4/5 minutes

Region : Fujian province

Harvest : Hand-harvested

Date of harvest : April

Process : "Orthodox white tea"

This fine tea is plucked by hand, and uniquely during Springtime. The harvested leaves are simply seared and dried, resulting in a leaf with a downy, silver covering. The leaves give a clear apricot-colored infusion, accompanied with notes of fruit and herbs.

CHINA

Iced tea

Dry leaves : Wide clear or dark green leaf, covered with a white down to grey, dotted

Colour of the liquor : Light apricot, clear

Main flavour : Sweet (Intensity: Light)

Main aromatic family : Flowery (Intensity: Light)

Aromatic notes : Straw, flowery

Attack : Hay-like

Middle notes : Rose

Persistence : Hay-like

Texture : Powdery

Brewing advice : 4/5min à 80°C

Cup : Light infusion, herbaceous, with cocoa bean and rose notes

Specificity : Fuding Da Bai cultivar

Expert comments : Delicious cold in summer and hot during winter time

Moment for tasting : Depending on your caffeine sensitivity

Food Pairing : With egg cream

Storage advice : Keep away from air, light and humidity