

Code : 655

MALT SOUCHONG - LOOSE TEA 0.250 JAPAN BLACK TEA

90°C

4 minutes

Region : Shizuoka

Harvest : Hand harvested

Production detail : Produced by Matsumoto family

Date of harvest : Spring harvest

Garden : Altitude : 160m

Process : "Orthodox black tea"

This tea is the encounter of two universes, tea and the world renowned, Japanese Whisky. Indeed, Matsumoto san used whisky wood barrel from a famous distillery from Saitama to smoke this black tea. The resulting liquor is incredibly mellow. The roundness of the tea blends with the malty, sweet whisky notes. A one-of-a-kind grand cru.

JAPAN

Grand cru

Dry leaves : Dark twisted leaves

Colour of the liquor : Amber

Main flavour : Sweet (Intensity: Light)

Main aromatic family : Tarry (Intensity: Light)

Aromatic notes : Malty, sweet whisky notes

Attack : Smoked and malty

Middle notes : Warm sugar

Persistence : cereals

Texture : Smooth

Brewing advice : 2g of tea per 150ml of water

Cup : Roundness of the tea blends with the malty, sweet whisky notes

Specificity : This farmer is the only one to produce smoked tea in Japan. Tea comes from Yabukita cultivar

Expert comments : A real success! The result of an excellent technique of the tea smoking process, which allows us to find subtle malty aromas.

Moment for tasting : All day

Food Pairing : Creme brûlée