

Code : 761

KG NEPALSIMPANI OOLONG (0,250) Loose tea

100°C

4 minutes

Process : "Orthodox Oolong Tea"

Situated in the foothills of Kangchenjunga, the world's third highest peak. It has ideal conditions, with a semi-tropical, sunny and warm climate and sufficient rainfall. Harvested by hand and then gently rolled and dried, the leaves have a delicate and smooth flavour.

NEPAL

Region : Ilam region, eastern Nepal, a few kilometres from Darjeeling

Harvest : Clonal - bud and 2 leaves

Production detail : Sourced from a small family farm managed as a co-operative

Date of harvest : May

Garden : Located on the high plains of the Ilam valley. Cultivated between 1800 and 2100 m

Dry leaves : The leaves are slightly twisted and have many golden tips.

Colour of the liquor : Orange

Main flavour : Sweet (Intensity: Light)

Main aromatic family : Fruity (Intensity: Light)

Aromatic notes : Fruity, muscatel

Attack : Fruity

Middle notes : Suave and nutty

Persistence : Mildly wooded

Texture : Powdery

Cup : Notes of ripe fruit, a hint of sweet muscatel and walnut.

Specificity : Empowers its farmers by providing higher revenues, free housing, free education to their children and cows for additional income

Expert comments : This new plantation has been a wonderful discovery to make. The mountainous area, the biodiversity and the wild forests give this Oolong tea an aromatic richness that is just waiting to be discovered.